Sir,

I have to acquaint you that no account has been received in this Office this year of the employment of the above-named Vessel, of which you appear to be the Owner or Manager.

I have therefore to request that you will be pleased to inform me whether this Vessel is still in existence, and if so, whether she is employed, in order that the record kept in this Department for Statistical purposes may be completed.

It may perhaps save you trouble, and will be more convenient to this Office, if you will have the kindness to fill in replies to such of the questions at foot as are applicable to the above-mentioned Vessel, and return this paper to me at your earliest convenience.

In case you may not be aware of the provisions of the 21st Section of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, I have to inform you that if any Registered Vessel is lost, taken by the enemy, burnt, or broken up, or is transferred to persons not qualified to own British Vessels, or otherwise ceases to be a British Ship, the Owner is required immediately to give notice of the occurrence to the Registrar of Shipping at the vessel's Port of Registry.
